Role of Commissioner generally under this Part

10 The Commissioner shall foster and encourage the publication by public authorities of information of relevance or interest to the general public in relation to the activities and functions of the authority generally, in addition to the information that is required to be provided under this Part.

PART 3

RIGHT OF ACCESS

Access to records

12 (1) Subject to this Act, every person who is a resident of Bermuda has a right to and shall, on request, be given access to any record that is held by a public authority, other than an exempt record.

PUBLIC ACCESS TO INFORMATION ACT 2010

(2) Public authorities shall make every reasonable effort to—

- (a) assist persons in connection with requests; and
- (b) respond to requests completely, accurately and in a timely manner.

(3) A requester is not required to give any reasons for making a request.

(4) The identity of a requester shall be kept confidential and, except with the consent of the requester, may not be disclosed to any person other than a person who is required to deal with the request under this Act.

Request for access

13 (1) A request for access to a record under this Act must be made in writing to the public authority that holds the record.

(2) A request must identify the record or contain sufficient information to enable the public authority to identify the record by taking reasonable steps to do so.

(3) A request may specify in which form or manner set out in section 17 (1) the requester wishes to be given access and, subject to subsection 17(2), access shall be given in that form or manner.

(4) A public authority shall acknowledge receipt of a request within five working days after receipt of the request, and the authority shall at the same time inform the requester of the process for dealing with the request and of the requester's rights under this Act.

(5) Where a request under this section is received by a public authority and any record requested is not held by that authority but, to the knowledge of that authority, is held by one or more other public authorities, the public authority that received the request shall, not later than five working days after receipt of the request cause a copy of the request to be given—

- (a) to that other public authority; or
- (b) in the case of more than one other public authority, to the authority whose functions are, in the opinion of the head of the public authority that first received the request, most closely related to the subject matter of the request.

(6) The head of the public authority that first received the request shall inform the requester in writing of the other public authority or authorities to whom a copy of the request has been given.

(7) A public authority to whom a copy of a request has been given under subsection (5) shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed to have received the request at the time of the receipt by that authority of the copy, and subsections (4), (5) and (6) shall apply in respect of the request that has been copied to the authority.

PUBLIC ACCESS TO INFORMATION ACT 2010

Decision on request

14 (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, a public authority shall, not later than 28 days after receipt, or deemed receipt, of a request under section 13, decide—

- (a) whether to grant or refuse to grant the request in whole or in part; and
- (b) if the request is to be granted, the form and manner in which the right of access to the record concerned is to be given, and the amount of any fee payable for the provision of access.

(2) A public authority shall immediately after a decision has been made give notice in writing of the decision to the requester, and to any third party who made representations under section 39, specifying—

- (a) the reasons for the decision, including findings on any material issues relevant to the decision and particulars of any matter relating to the public interest taken into consideration for the purposes of the decision; and
- (b) the provisions of this Act regarding review and appeal of the decision.

(3) Subject to subsection (4), where the decision is to grant a request, the public authority concerned shall provide access to the record concerned in accordance with section 17 as soon as possible after the date when the period under section 42 for applying for a review of the decision has expired without an application having been made.

(4) Where an application has been made under section 41 for a review of a decision to grant a request, the public authority concerned shall provide access to the record concerned in accordance with section 17 as soon as possible after—

- (a) the date when the period under section 45 for applying for a review of a decision made under section 43 has expired without an application having been made; or
- (b) if an application under section 45 has been made, the date when a review under Part 6 in respect of a decision made under section 43 has been completed.

Extension of time

15 (1) A public authority may extend the original period of 28 days referred to in section 14(1) by such further period, not exceeding 28 days, as the authority considers necessary if, in the opinion of the head of the authority, compliance with the original period of 28 days is not reasonably practicable because—

- (a) there is insufficient time to consider representations made by third parties under section 39 or to complete any consultations with regard to whether access to particular information is in the public interest; or
- (b) dealing with the request within the original period of 28 days would substantially or unreasonably interfere with the day to day operations of the authority.

PUBLIC ACCESS TO INFORMATION ACT 2010

(2) Where a period is extended by a public authority under this section, the authority shall, before the expiration of the original period, give notice in writing to the requester concerned of the extension and the reasons for it.

Refusal of request on administrative grounds

- 16 (1) A public authority may refuse to grant a request if—
- (a) the record requested does not exist or cannot be found after all reasonable steps have been taken to find it;
 - (b) the request does not contain sufficient information to enable the authority to identify the record by taking reasonable steps;
 - (c) in the opinion of the head of the authority, granting the request would, by reason of the number or nature of the records requested, require the retrieval and examination of such number of records or an examination of records of such kind as to cause a substantial and unreasonable interference with or disruption of the other work of the public authority;
 - (d) publication of the record is required by law and is intended to be effected not later than three months after the receipt of the request by the authority;
 - (e) the request is, in the opinion of the head of the authority, frivolous or vexatious;
 - (f) the information is in the public domain, is reasonably accessible to the public or is reasonably available to the public on request under any other statutory provision, whether free of charge or on payment; or
 - (g) the fee payable under section 20 has not been paid.

(2) A public authority shall not refuse to grant a request under subsection (1)(b) or (c), unless the authority has assisted, or offered to assist, the requester to amend the request in a manner such that it no longer falls under those provisions.

Manner of access to records

- 17 (1) A public authority shall give access to a record under this Act by providing the requester with the information in the record in any of the following forms or manners that it considers appropriate—

 - (b) a copy of the record;
 - (c) a transcript of the information;
 - (d) an electronic machine-readable device or other electronic device that contains the information;

PUBLIC ACCESS TO INFORMATION ACT 2010

- (f) a decoded copy of the information, where the information is in shorthand or another code;
- (g) such other means as may be determined by the public authority.

(2) Where a public authority decides to grant a request and the request is for access to a record in a particular form or manner, access shall be given in that form or manner unless the authority is satisfied that—

- (a) access in another form or manner specified in subsection (1) would be significantly more efficient; or
- (b) the giving of access in the form or manner requested would—
 - (i) be physically detrimental to the record,
 - (ii) involve an infringement of copyright (other than copyright owned by the Crown, the Government or the public authority concerned),
 - (iii) conflict with a legal duty or obligation of the public authority concerned, or
 - (iv) affect the protection of an exempt record from disclosure.

(3) Where a public authority decides to grant a request but, for reasons set out in subsection (2), does not give access to the record requested in the form or manner specified in the request, the authority shall give access in such form or manner as the authority considers appropriate.

Access to part of record

18 (1) Subject to subsection (2), where a record requested contains information that constitutes an exempt record, the public authority concerned shall, if it is practicable, prepare a copy, in such form as the authority considers appropriate, of so much of the record requested as does not consist of that material, and the request shall be granted by offering the requester access to the copy in accordance with section 17.

(2) A public authority is not required to prepare a copy of a record under subsection (1) if the copy would be misleading.

(3) Where a requester is offered access to a copy of part of a record under this section, the notice under section 14 shall specify that such access is offered pursuant to this section and that the copy does not purport to be a copy of the complete record requested.

Request to amend record of personal information

19 (1) Where personal information in a record held by a public authority is incomplete, incorrect or misleading, the authority shall, on request in writing by or on behalf of the person to whom the information relates, amend the record—

- (a) by altering it so as to make the information complete or correct or not misleading, as the case may be;

PUBLIC ACCESS TO INFORMATION ACT 2010

- (b) by adding to the record a statement specifying in what respect the information is incomplete, incorrect or misleading; or
 - (c) by deleting information from the record.
- (2) A request under subsection (1) shall, so far as is practicable—
- (a) specify the record concerned and the amendment requested; and
 - (b) include appropriate information in support of the request.
- (3) The public authority concerned shall, within five working days after receipt of a request, acknowledge receipt of the request and shall, within 28 days after receipt of the request, decide whether to grant or refuse to grant the request and shall give notice, in writing or in such other form as may be determined, of the decision of the authority to the person concerned.
- (4) A public authority may extend the original period of 28 days by such further period, not exceeding 28 days, as the authority considers necessary if, in the opinion of the head of the authority, compliance with the original period of 28 days is not reasonably practicable.
- (5) Where a period is extended by a public authority under subsection (4), the authority shall, before the expiration of the original period, give notice in writing to the requester concerned of the extension and the reasons for it.
- (6) A notice referred to in subsection (3) shall—
- (a) if the decision is to refuse the request, specify the reasons for the refusal;
 - (b) if the decision is to grant the request, specify the manner in which the record concerned is to be amended; and
 - (c) indicate the provisions of this Act regarding review or appeal of a decision under this section.
- (7) If requested to do so by the requester, a public authority shall provide the requester with evidence that the record has been amended by permitting the requester to view the amended record or by giving the requester a copy of the amended record.
- (8) No fee is payable in respect of a request under this section.

Fees in respect of access requests

- 20 (1) The amount of any fee payable by a requester for the provision of access to a record under this Act shall be calculated by the public authority concerned in accordance with regulations made under section 59.
- (2) No fee is payable simply for the making of a request under this Act for access to a record.
- (3) Access to a record under this Act shall not be provided until any fee in respect of the provision of access has been paid.

(5) A public authority may grant a request for a record containing personal information in relation to an individual where the requester concerned is—
